Rabbi Richard Eisenberg

Dear Mary,

How are you doing?

I'm writing to let you know that our Holocaust Remembrance Service was a huge success. Our sanctuary was filled to the brim and we had 12 clergy on the pulpit participating. A few people told me that this event was the greatest thing that ever happened in our synagogue, and the feedback was overwhelmingly positive. I'm enclosing a clipping printed in our local paper the day after the service.

Mary, much of the credit for this goes to you. You provided the inspiration and the push we needed to get this going. May this be the beginning of a new era of ecumenical understanding in Columbus.

Please give my fond regards to Paul.

Yours,
Rick
