

THE MOBILE AREA JEWISH-CHRISTIAN DIALOGUE

ANNOUNCES

The second lecture in the 1986-87 series which will be held on November 11, 1987.

Please be sure to mark your calendar right away to be certain that you will be present for this important presentation. We are indeed, proud to be able to announce that on November 11, 1987...Tuesday evening at 7:30 PM, we will have with us, Ms. Patricia Ann Clark of the Southern Poverty Law Center, Project KlanWatch, Montgomery, Alabama. The topic of her lecture will be: A LEGACY OF HATE IN AMERICA.

Pat Clark was born and raised in Salem County, New Jersey and attended Smith College in Northampton, Mass., where she majored in political science and economics. She worked in Zaire, Africa from 1979 through 1982 with Habitat for Humanity supervising construction of low cost housing and coordinating community development projects. Included among these projects were literacy classes taught in Lingala, the regional dialect, French and English classes, an experimental garden, construction of a women's center using fire baked bricks made by the village women themselves.

Ms. Clark is presently a research person working with the Southern Poverty Law Center's Klanwatch Project. There she helps monitor the activities of the Ku Klux Klan and other white supremacist groups, including the Aryan Nation organization which has been notable in recent months in the press.

It is certainly timely for her to be with us in Mobile to discuss this important topic and we hope you will be with us to dialogue on this issue. MARK YOUR CALENDAR NOW.....and bring a friend.
