

Swedish bishop speaks

KIICHIRO SATO/Director of photography

Krister Stendahl, a former bishop of the Church of Sweden and a former dean of the Harvard Divinity School, spoke Tuesday night at St. Paul's Lutheran Church about the importance of good relations between Jews and Christians. About 120 people attended the talk, sponsored by the Jewish-Christian Dialogue of Mobile.