December 13, 1996

Dear Friends,

It's the beginning of another year of dialogue in the Mobile area. We are very happy to be able to present to you, a scholar and a teacher who will speak to our dialogue group on January 7, 1997.

Clark M. Williamson is Indiana Professor of Christian Thought at Christian Theological Seminary. He holds the B.D., M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Chicago Divinity School and the B.A. from Transylvania University. At Chicago he served as teaching assistant to Paul Tillich and was editor/advisor to the third volume of Tillich's Systematic Theology.

Dr. Williamson has served as president of the Christian Study Group on Judaism and is a member of the Church Relations Committee of the U. S. Holocaust Memorial Council. He has lectured widely and taken part in numerous workshops, seminars, and scholarly symposia. His most recent books are: "A Guest In The House of Israel" and "The Church and the Jewish People".

Please join us as we welcome Dr. Williamson to Mobile. His topic promises to be stimulating and provocative and will launch us into the 1997 dialogue season. We hope you will mark your calendars so that you will not miss this exciting lecture.

TOPIC: "SHOULD CHRISTIANS HAVE A MISSION TO THE JEWS?"

PLACE: First Baptist Church of Mobile

DATE: Tuesday, January 7, 1997

TIME: 7:00 PM (Please note)

We look forward to seeing all of you at First Baptist Church. Please be aware that the time is 7:00 PM, not 7:30 PM. Please ask a friend or several friends to come with you.

Shalom,
