

Mobile Christian-Jewish Dialogue

The Mobile Christian-Jewish Dialogue

presents

“A Christian and a Jew Learn About Each Other's Scriptures”

A panel presentation by
Jerry Darring and Larry Voit

Tuesday, September 23, 7 pm

Our Savior Catholic Church

1801 Cody Road South

(between Grelot and Cottage Hill Road)

Jerry Darring, a member of Our Savior Catholic Church, has been sitting in on the Torah study held weekly at the Ahavas Chesed Synagogue. Larry Voit, a member of the Ahavas Chesed Synagogue, has been reading the New Testament with a group of Jewish friends and a Christian guide. Each will share his experience in encountering the other's scriptures, and describe its impact on their views of their own and the other's religion.

Important dates for the Fall Semester:

Sept. 30: Rosh Hashanah.
Oct. 9: Yom Kippur.
Oct. 26: First Baptist of Mobile program “Good Will for the Common Good: Nurturing Baptists' Relationships with Jews.”
Nov. 9-11: Mobile Film Festival, main program; with co-sponsored events possibly on Oct. 29 or 30, and Nov. 2.